ORLANDO CHARTER" REJECTED; MAJORITY AGAINST, 81 VOTES

A long agitated proposition to the city of Daytona's present form of municipal government and the commission form was rejected Tuesday's special election, to the effect of 81 votes; that is, the proposition lacked 81 votes of the required majority of the electors.

Appendix table gives the essential figures:

Qualified	667
Votes cast	535
Legal votes cast	505
Legal votes	30
For ratification	253
Against ratification	252
Legal votes is meant ballots	81

It will be noted that of the legal votes there was a difference of one between those favoring ratification of the "new charter" and those who registered their disapproval. Of the 132 persons who, for the satisfactory to themselves, refused from voting it is known that they were aware that failure to vote was equivalent to casting their vote against the proposition.

The proponents of the commission government scheme for Daytona were visibly disappointed when the result was announced, and a few manifested extreme discontent. Many had worked hard for months to popularize the proposed charter, and when the polls opened the morning were apparently confident of success, some of them going so far as to predict ratification by a vote of three to one, and declaring it was "all over but the shouting."

In getting ready for and holding the election the city incurred an expense of about $600. By some of those who opposed changing the form of municipal government this $600 is considered as the "first item of expense," a more economical administration of city affairs having been the widely heralded slogan of the commission advocates.

It is recognized that a great many voted for commission government yesterday because they sincerely believed it to be an improvement over the old form and calculated that the time had come to effect a change; but at the same time not a few of these admitted that they preferred a commission-manager system. It is generally conceded that a majority of Daytona's citizens favor commission government, but the result of the proposition voted upon at that time is not what is desired.

SUDDEN DEATH OF SEABREEZE RESIDENT IN ATLANTA HOSPITAL

H. F. STEWART, WELL-KNOWN CITIZEN OF THE PENINSULA, SUCCEUMS AFTER ILLNESS OF SHORT DURATION.

The death of H. F. Stewart at Atlanta, where he has been confined in a hospital for the last few weeks, comes as a shock to the large number of his friends in Daytona Beach and vicinity. Mr. Stewart went to Atlanta about a month ago to accompany Mrs. Stewart home to Seabreeze, after she had spent the summer recuperating in an Atlanta sanitarium and in the Georgia mountains. Upon reaching Atlanta, however, Mr. Stewart suddenly became ill, but has been slowly improving until he suddenly suffered a relapse last night and died early this morning.

The body is expected to arrive tomorrow, accompanied by Mrs. H. F. Stewart and Mrs. Charles Stewart. His daughter, Mrs. D. S. Riddles, of Cleveland, and brother, Ed Stewart, of Chicago, will come in as short a time as possible and the funeral will be held at the Stewart Seabreeze home on Ocean avenue.

Mr. Stewart was among the first settlers in Daytona Beach, having come here with his father, who was the first pastor in the Daytona Beach Methodist church, about 20 years ago. The peninsula has been Mr. Stewart's home since that time and for that reason he had formed a large number of warm friendships here.

Mr. Stewart has been always associated in the religious as well as the social and business affairs of Daytona Beach and Seabreeze and has built numbers of residences besides a large hotel, the Seaside Inn, which he erected and managed for several years and has recently sold.

Horace Floyd Stewart was nearly 60 years of age and was survived by his widow and four children, Mrs. Donald Riddles, of Cleveland, O.; Miss Ruth Stewart, Master Floyd Stewart, and Betty Stewart, of Seabreeze, in addition to many other relatives.

THAT KAISER IS DEAD RUMORED IN N. YORK

NEW YORK, Jan. 5. (1:55 p.m.)—A rumor that Emperor William of Germany is dead was circulated on the produce exchange this afternoon. No confirmation of the report has been received by cable, nor has there been any intimation that the kaiser is dying.

ITALIANS STORM TRENCHES

ROME, Jan. 5.—An official announcement states that the Italians are advancing in the Riva section between Biacona and Rocchetta. They successfully stormed and captured two entrenchments on the slope of Mount Perone, the Carso plateau on the Issonzo front, after a fierce engagement. The Italians are also occupying advanced positions north of Monfalcone.

ALLIES' BATTERIES SILENCED

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 5.—An Allied cruiser off the coast of Sedd el Barr was struck twice by Turkish shells during the recent bombardment. There is also a report in circulation that the batteries of the Allies have been silenced and their trenches destroyed in the same neighborhood.

PENINSULA WOMAN SUICIDES IN THE SEA

FLAG GIVEN BY MRS. C. G. BURGOYNE TO WAVE ON THURSDAY

BURGOYNE BANDSTAND-PAVILION NEARING COMPLETION AND DONOR HOPES TO HAVE READY SOON.

From the towering mast standing at the southwest corner of the Burgoyne pavilion and bandstand will fly the magnificent American flag presented by Mrs. C. G. Burgoyne, wife of the lavishly generous gentleman who volunteered to erect the great building at his own expense. The dimensions of the "colors" given by Mrs. Burgoyne somewhat exceed the two other large and handsome American banners presented by the Daytona Elks' club and the Palmetto club, which were displayed Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. J. W. Shields' gift, a beautiful state flag of Florida, attracted attention all day Monday.

Work on the pavilion-bandstand is progressing rapidly, and Mr. Burgoyne hopes to have it ready for dedication to the use and pleasure of the public within a few weeks.

Frank J. Nelson, son of James T. Nelson, of 44 North Ridgewood avenue, is taking a business and law course at Stetson university, DeLand.

IF THERE MUST BE LITIGATION LET IT BE FRIENDLY NATURE

Some who were in favor of the commission charter contend that the construction of the law means that the charter carried; others contend otherwise. The vote was close. The charter of a city is the foundation of the government of the city. The charter should not be effective if there is even a shadow of doubt of its legality. The matter should be carried to the supreme court, but let the suit be friendly and without a vast expenditure of money. No matter how individuals feel, the Daily News advances the opinion that the supreme court should pass on the question.

MRS. W. H. DELMORE'S BODY DISCOVERED ON BEACH EARLY TODAY

DESPONDENCY OVER HER ILL HEALTH THOUGHT TO BE THE CAUSE OF ACT OF SELF-DESTRUCTION.

Prompted by despondency caused by ill health presumably, Mrs. Ellen Delmore, a widow, one of the proprietors of the White House at Daytona Beach, ended her life by drowning in the ocean at the hour of midnight or soon thereafter Wednesday morning.

Shortly before 12 o'clock Mrs. Delmore told her daughter, Miss Matilda, with whom she resides, that she was "going to step out for a few minutes," and left the building on the corner of Seabreeze and Grandview avenues. Fifteen minutes later, not hearing anything of her mother, Miss Delmore became worried and searched the hotel buildings and not discovering her, then awoke E. L. Howard, the owner of the hotel, and commenced a systematic search.

After going down Seabreeze avenue as far as the beach once the search party met Night Watchman Creech, who joined them. Several other neighboring residents were awakened and parties went in opposite directions, some toward the river and after thoroughly searching, Mrs. Delmore's footprints were discovered near the Seabreeze avenue approach on the beach.

These were followed until they disappeared in the ocean, upon which the searching party divided in front of the Neptune hotel, and proceeded in opposite directions along the beach in the attempt to find the body.

E. L. Howard first discovered the body floating in the shallow water near the ocean pier about 3:00 a. m., after the search had been in progress for more than two hours.

The men carried Mrs. Delmore's body to the hotel and sent for Coroner J. W. Williams, who issued a removal permit after the cause of death was decided on as drowning, after which the remains were placed in the hands of the Bingham & Maley company, Daytona undertakers, at whose parlors the body now rests.

Miss Delmore plans to leave tomorrow for her mother's former home in Carthage, N. Y., where the latter will be buried after fitting funeral services.

Mrs. Delmore and daughter came to Daytona Beach about three years ago and have managed several of the local hotels since their arrival. Their first season was spent at the Oyama, after which they managed the Neptune on the corner of Ocean avenue and Earl street in Seabreeze for about two years.

For the last month Mrs. Delmore and daughter have been conducting the White House during which time and for many months before, the mother had suffered exceedingly poor Hypothetical question No. 1: If you were pestered with a proclivity for pilfering (which, as a matter of course, you probably are not) or acquiring in a questionable manner the belongings of another, or if you came into possession, by methods dark and devious, of something the rightful title to which you believed lay in somebody else; and, supposing you did find yourself in so peculiar and unenviable situation, and then got caught "red-handed with the goods on you," what would you say—IF YOU SAID ANYTHING? Would you consider it good policy to try to place the blame for your ethical delinquency upon some person or institution that had no interest in you, further than to hope that you would play a straight game and keep in mind at all times that "Honesty is the best policy"?

INTERESTING FACTS ABOUT THE GEELONG

Editor Daily News:

Dear Sir: Just a word concerning the steamship Geelong which I learned through the Morning Hotel News had been sunk. Contrary to the general belief that she was built in 1914, she was a popular passenger boat trading between London and Australia in 1906. Just the date of her launching I do not know, though it was probably about 1904. She sailed under the house flag of the Blue Anchor line.

The captain of the Geelong, at that time, was a cousin of mine. He was also commodore of the company's fleet of trading and passenger vessels. During the year of 1906 he gave up his command and took the ill-fated steamer, Waratah, out to Australia. Before he left, he told me confidentially that it would be his last voyage, as he intended retiring from service at its conclusion.

On the return trip his new and magnificently "found" steamship disappeared. She simply failed to reach port. Although the company made every effort to trace her they could only learn that one of their biggest and best vessels had suddenly dropped off the surface of the ocean with 700 souls aboard.

The steamer Geelong was not a sister ship of the Persia, but she belonged to the same concern. The Persia was built some little time later for the Indian trade.

Yours faithfully,

R. PURDUE.

(Mr. Purdue is correct in his belief that the Geelong was launched in 1904.—Editor.)

HOUSE WILL TELL EUROPE OUR VIEWS

Goes as Wilson's Voice to Promote Better Understanding.

NOT ON MISSION OF PEACE

Nor Will He Reprimand Any Diplomats or Intrude in Their Fields of Activity. Foreign Leaders Acquainted With Purpose of His Visit Eager to Meet Him.

Colonel Edward Mandell House is off for Europe for a visit of six weeks or two months in London, Paris and Berlin. He goes as the representative of President Wilson, and as such he will visit both the American embassies in those cities and the statesmen at the head of affairs in all three nations.

Many reports have been printed concerning the object of his trip, but the following facts are said to be most authentic:

Colonel House's mission has only one purpose, and it is not to sound the nations on the subject of peace, to interfere in whatever bickerings there may be among American diplomats, to stir up the Lusitania case or to do any of the various things with which he has been credited. His mission is the first step in an attempt at a better and closer understanding between the European nations and this country, to the end that misapprehension of our attitude and views and actions may be measurably avoided in the future.

That the need for such a mission or for some other step to bring about such an understanding was felt in Berlin as well as in Washington was strikingly shown in a Berlin dispatch of Dec. 20, in which these expressions appeared:

An American in Germany is soon aware that the obstacles in the way of mutual understanding between the two nations are, in the first place, those of feeling, and secondly, those of facts. . . . If the German government could speak directly to the American government alone, out of the hearing of the rest of the world, . . . much misconception on both sides could perhaps be avoided. . . . It would be hard to say at this moment whether Germany misconceives the American mind more than the United States misconceives the German mind.

Conditions Same in England.

What is true of Germany is true in a different way of the allied powers, in spite of the fact that they have greater freedom of communication than the fortune of war has given to Germany. Not from our ambassadors can they get the full American viewpoint, because our ambassadors are themselves out of touch with what is going on here and with the fluctuations and changes in American sentiment necessarily produced by the constantly shifting events of the war.

In the dispatch already quoted the author spoke of what could be done if there could be "an exchange between the at once high and special powers." The mission of Colonel House comes as near being that as is possible. There cannot very well be a conversation between the president and the kaiser, but Colonel House's visit to the German foreign office will be the next thing to it.

It is important, however, to keep clear from the idea that Germany is the special object of Colonel House's journey. It is nothing of the kind, and it would be well within bounds to say that his visit to London and to Paris is even more important in the president's mind than that to Berlin in the way of giving needed information and setting the scenes right for future dealings.

Not to Reprimand Diplomats.

All reports that Colonel House is going abroad to reprimand ambassadors for alleged failings are made out of whole cloth. The president does not regard it as due to any fault of these diplomats that they are out of touch with feeling in their own country. It is, he holds, the natural and inevitable result of their being away from the place where that feeling exists and due to no other cause. Even a month's absence makes a man lose touch, and these ambassadors have been away from one to two years.

Colonel House himself has been heard to say that when he last went abroad he stayed four months and was astonished on his return to find that he had himself grown out of touch with American feeling, and this is the reason why he has determined to make a shorter stay this time. He intends to stay only six weeks and certainly will not stay longer than two months. If even he noticed this difference in himself in so short a stay as four months the president believes that no ambassador is blameworthy for showing the effects of the same thing after an absence of two years.

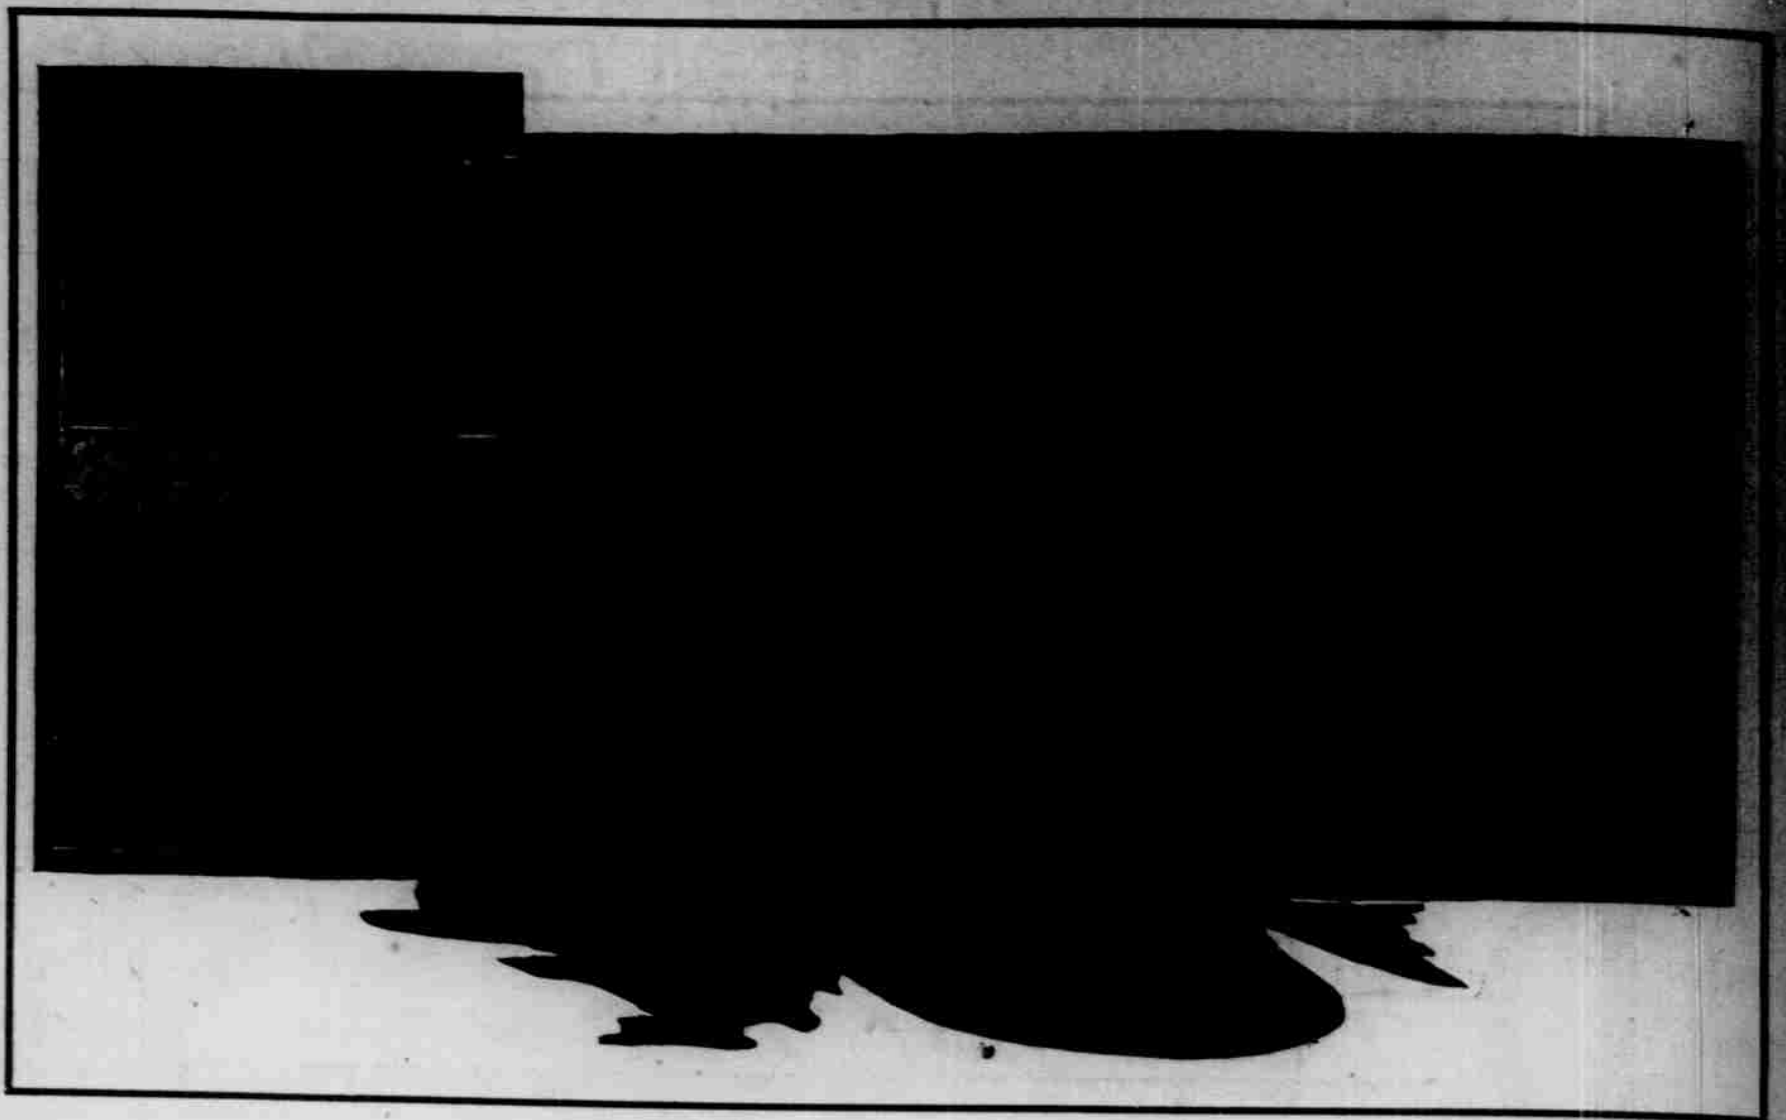

LIMBURGER CUTS DEATH RATE

Wisconsin Physician Finds Eating of Famous Cheese Healthful.

Physicians of Green county, Wis., which had the lowest death rate in that state last summer, attribute the healthy condition of the community to the eating of Limburger cheese.

Last year 3,041,465 pounds of this cheese were produced in the county, and as a staple of food it largely displaced meat.

The quarterly report of the state board of health, just issued, gave Green county a death rate of 7.2 per thousand compared with 9.2 for the state at large.

NEW TRAIN SERVICE OVER F.E.C. RAILWAY NOW IN OPERATION

The winter tourist train service from the North and East via the Atlantic Coast Line and the Seaboard Air Line railways has been inaugurated, the former's palatial New York and Florida Special having arrived in Jacksonville at 3:10 Tuesday afternoon. A few minutes later the Seaboard Florida Limited arrived from New York and Washington. At 3:30 the cars making up both trains left over the Florida East Coast railway with passengers destined for Daytona, Palm Beach, Miami and intermediate resorts on the East Coast.

The F. E. C.'s New York, Palm Beach and Miami train reached Daytona at 7:51 o'clock Tuesday evening laden with tourists, many of whom stopped here. The new train is scheduled to arrive at its destination, Havana, Cuba, at 5:30 p. m., daily. It will be in operation during the remainder of the winter season.

DAYTONA HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Twenty new pupils were enrolled at the public schools Monday. Two of these pupils were entered in the high school, and 18 in the different grades.

Mid-year exams will be given the last week in January.

Exhibits from the schools are being prepared for the Volusia county fair at DeLand, which will be held from January 24 to 28, inclusive.

The schools will be closed on Friday, January 28, which will give both teachers and pupils, alike, an opportunity to attend the fair. This day is to be observed as "Educational Day" at the fair.

Preparations are being made and material gathered together for the next issue of the high school "Sentinel." It is expected, at this time, that the book will be ready for distribution about the 1st of February.

This annual high school paper has always been a very interesting medium between this school and its friends, likewise the many other high schools of different cities and towns, with whom it exchanges its publication. This year's book promises to be the best and biggest edition ever gotten out by the school.

Just a Fancy.

True to form, somebody has again set the notion in circulation that chess players are great military tacticians. The theory sounds very pretty, and the only trouble with it is that it isn't so. Napoleon and Frederick the Great were both poor chess players.—Buffalo Times.

Havana's Water Supply.

For more than three hundred years the water supply of the city of Havana was carried through an open ditch, built in 1592. The supply originated at the springs of the Almendares river, nine miles south of the city, and this source still provides an adequate flow, for the springs, which have since been fully developed, number 400 and are enclosed by a heavy wall of masonry which is constantly under military guard. An aqueduct has long since supplanted the ditch.

IRENE FENWICK AT THE CRYSTAL TODAY

The Kleine-Edison Feature service will present Irene Fenwick in George Kleine's photo-play version of "The Sentimental Lady" at the Crystal theater this afternoon and evening.

Miss Fenwick has "met and conquered" American audiences before this, so her success today is assured. She recently left "old Broadway" to cast her lot, for at least part of the time, with the "movies." She has played many leading roles in some of the foremost productions of the American "legitimate" stage. Box-office records were smashed beyond belief at her success in "The Song of Songs," which ran continuously in New York for two seasons.

Miss Fenwick's acting on the screen is quite as entertaining as her performances on the stage. She carries with her a magnetism and daintiness that never fails to win the hearts of the audience.

The "SILENT SMITH"

—Model 8 shows what should now be expected of a typewriter.

Ball Bearing; Long Wearing

The success of the L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriters has been due to the fact that the wants of the user have dictated its construction. The user has decided in favor of certain improvements now incorporated in Model 8. Among them are:

Silence of Operation—The most silent running efficient typewriter ever placed on the market. Absolute silence has been very nearly attained.

Decimal Tabulator—A help in billing and tabulating. There is no extra charge for this convenience.

Variable Line Spacer—Enables the operator to start on a given line and space from point of starting; also to write on ruled lines whose spacing varies from typewriter spacing. A great help in card work.

Faster Ribbon Feed—Insures new place of impact for each typeface.

Choice of Carriage Return—Upon special order the new left hand carriage return will be furnished in place of the right hand return.

All the important features of previous models have been retained—ball bearing carriage, typebars and capital shift, back spacer, key-controlled ribbon, removable platen, protected type, flexible paper feed and automatic ribbon reverse.

Write for New Catalog of Model 8. It will explain why the L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriter is a synonym for superior service.

During the last school year a teacher in the Indianapolis schools asked her pupils to tell her which was the most important, to keep the face or the teeth clean, and why. One of her small boys replied without a moment's hesitation: "Your teeth, 'cause they'll rot off, and your face won't."

Responsibility Surrendered.

"Your wife is an enthusiastic advocate of woman suffrage." "Yes," replied Mr. Meekton. "And I'm glad of it. She's going to take her turn at letting me ask irrelevant questions, while she tries to explain what's being done in politics."

DOUBLED HIS DONATION TO BAND CHAIR FUND

Geo. H. Ludwig, who some time earlier made a donation of $5.00 to the Burgoyne band casino chair fund, today added another $5.00, making his contribution $10.00. Mr. Ludwig stated to F. M. Rowe when he made the second donation that he had just been looking over the new building, work on which is progressing nicely, and decided that considering what Commodore Burgoyne was doing for the city and what an attraction and ornament the band casino will be to Daytona, his first donation was not large enough by half. Here is thought for more of Daytona's generous residents and visitors. The fund, though growing, still lacks considerable of reaching the amount that will be required to provide the chairs and other necessary furnishings for the building. All who desire to help this cause should come forward now with their contributions, which will be cheerfully received at the Rowe jewelry store.

If you read it in the Daily News it is pretty apt to be just that way.

HOW AMERICAN PRINCESS ESCAPED FROM AUSTRIANS.

Former Mrs. Huger Pratt Had Hard Time Leaving Serbia.

Princess Alexis Karageorgievitch, formerly Mrs. Huger Pratt of New York, arrived in Rome the other day after an adventurous journey on horseback across Albania. She was still much fatigued from her trip.

The prince is a cousin of King Peter of Serbia and was an exile from his country, living in Paris until last spring, when, with the princess, he went to Serbia.

The princess says that she left Nish shortly before the Austro-German occupation of the Serbian wartime capital. She said that she had been compelled to ride hard day and night since, pursued by the enemy and at imminent risk of capture.

The party originally had forty horses, but thirty-four of them died en route, and luggage and provisions were abandoned.

On her arrival at Tirana, Albania, the princess was welcomed by Essad Pasha, provisional president of Albania, who furnished an escort for the party to Montenegro, where they were the guests of King Nicholas at Cetinje. The princess, accompanied by her husband, crossed the Adriatic on an Italian cruiser, and was landed at Rapallo.

Princess Karageorgievitch says that the Servians are dying of hunger and that their need of relief is most urgent. Their sufferings in Albania, she says, baffle all description.

WOULD BUILD WATER FRONT.

Engineer Has Plan to Fill Up East River at New York.

One of the most startling projects ever conceived for the relief of the harbor congestion in New York has been proposed by one of New York's most prominent consulting engineers, Dr. T. Kennard Thomson. In the January Popular Science Monthly appears a vivid description by Dr. Thomson of the steps he hopes to take in order to make his plan a reality.

In brief, he plans to reclaim fifty square miles of land from New York bay, to add a hundred miles of new water front for docks, to fill in the East river and to prepare New York for a population of 20,000,000. This work is to be done by building cofferdams, and after pumping out the water, laying the subway tubes, gas, electric and telephone conduits he will fill in the inclosed space. This, he claims, will be a very inexpensive method of construction since it would not entail the costly tunneling to build the subway after the construction had been completed. Dr. Thomson believes that through taxes and additional business which would come to New York this project, while its original cost would be greater than that of the Panama canal, would surely and quickly pay for itself.

TWO PERISHED IN AIR BATTLE.

British and German Aeroplanes Fought Until Both Aeroplanes Fell.

Details of a recent air battle between a British and a German aviator, which ended in the destruction of both machines and the death of their occupants, is printed by the Amsterdam Telegraaf. The British aeroplane, it is stated, was flying over the district of Lichtervelde, south of Bruges, Belgium, and dropped several bombs, one of which hit an ammunition depot, causing a heavy explosion. On starting back the aviator found his path intercepted by a German air man.

A long and violent battle ensued, in which both aeroplanes were disabled and crashed to earth, killing the occupants.

Says Pheasants Kill Quails.

Game warden of central Illinois have filed charges against the English ring necked pheasants which were imported at enormous expense by the state game department and distributed in most of the counties. It is asserted that the pheasants kill the young quails and destroy the nests of the grown birds before the eggs are hatched.

WILBUR BY THE SEA

The cottages at Wilbur are being rapidly filled for the season, every day bringing new arrivals.

Love—And Understanding.

"To know all is to pardon all," our French friends tell us. Yet love and trust will supply the lack of knowledge and produce the same happy end. In spite of the fact that the natures of men and women are different, it is possible for a man and a woman to live happily together, although not understanding each other. This lack of understanding is for their good. If a man knew every thought, feeling and motive of a woman, what would his love be worth? Love is faith. True love knows no jealousy, no doubt. It is because a man does not know a woman, but has faith in her purity and honesty, that he is so dear to her. She knows that he is taking her upon trust, as she takes him, and it is their faith in one another that binds them. There are no rifts in the rosy cloud of true love, for true love is perfect faith, and the cloud that is riddled by the shafts of doubt and jealousy is a ragged cloud that reflects only a little of the sunshine of life, while the greater part filters through and is lost in the mists beyond.

health, having recently been confined to her room for a period of several weeks. The severe strain and worry was probably the motive for seeking relief in death.

Mrs. Delmore was born in Carthage, N. Y., on April 3, 1864, was a widow of Catholic faith, and 51 years of age at the time of her demise.

Partridge Helps Agriculturist. Investigation in Germany has shown that the partridge eats the seed of many noxious weeds and insects destructive to plant life, therefore it serves protection.

Columbus.

The idea of the sphericity of the earth did not originate with Columbus. Long before his time the idea was entertained by the leading minds. The globular form of the earth was taught by Eratosthenes, Aristarchus, Hipparchus and others as early as B. C. 276.—125.

THE WEATHER

The weather man has gone back on the Florida East Coast for once. He expects us to expect local rains tonight and Thursday. Fair weather is promised for the central portion of the state, with moderate east winds. Heavier south winds will sweep the southwest section.

TWO MORE YACHTS ARRIVE FROM NORTH

The beautifully equipped houseboat, the Vivia, from New York, tied up at the yacht club dock last evening. She is owned by F. F. Chrystie, who is taking a party cruising and fishing through Florida waters. It is probable that the Vivia will sail in a day or two for points further south, touching at Palm Beach and Miami.

The power yacht Vivia, 41 feet over all, and as comfortable as they make them, hailing from Wildwood, New Jersey, arrived this morning at the club dock. She is owned by Captain Thomas Johnson and chartered by W. W. Bonnell, of Youngstown, Ohio. The party consists of Captain Johnson, W. W. Bonnell, Jack Burd, of Atlantic City, Miss Vivian Johnson, Miss Vau-
Johnson, Mrs. Thomas Johnson, and Miss Lillian Roberts, of Philadelphia.

Mr. Bonnell reports a fine trip all the way from New York harbor. He says that the water in the canal was unusually high south of St. Augustine, although in one or two places the yacht touched.

The party spent Christmas in Savannah and put in to Jacksonville for a few days, besides making many minor stops along the coast further north. Mr. Bonnell will stay at Daytona for some little time and then proceed to Palm Beach and Miami.

If you read it in the Daily News it is pretty apt to be just that way.

LOCAL ITEMS

Little Miss Lola McDonald, who had been at home for the holidays, returned this morning to St. Augustine, where she is attending the convent school.

Alfred C. Thompson and family, of Ridgewood avenue, arrived in Daytona Wednesday to take up their winter residence here. They will occupy the Malby bungalow at the corner of Orange avenue and First street.

There will be a lecture by Wm. Jennings Bryan Friday evening, January 7, at Palmetto clubhouse. Admission 50 cents.

Mrs. M. P. Cornwall, of North Ridgewood avenue, gave a dinner party Tuesday evening to a few of her friends in honor of Miss Flora Schneider, who is visiting Mrs. F. J. Niver on Orange avenue. The house and table decorations were roses and ferns, and covers were laid for nine. Mrs. Cornwall is a charming hostess and a most pleasant evening was spent by her guests.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Tucker and little daughter, Margaret, are again here for the season, having arrived Tuesday evening from New York. Mr. Tucker, a talented musician, is the leader of the Clarendon hotel orchestra and for a number of years furnished the music during the season at the Despland hotel in this city. He has under his control several orchestras in the North.

Word has been received here of the death of A. A. Flanagan, of Chicago. Mr. Flanagan and Mrs. Flanagan, together with their son, Paul, spent last winter in Daytona, and were guests at the Ridgewood hotel. Mrs. Flanagan was an untiring worker in the Catholic church and Paul served as altar boy during the winter. Their many friends, formed while at Daytona, will be grieved to hear of Mr. Flanagan's demise.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Cottrill, of Arcade, N. Y., winter residents of Daytona for several past seasons, returned to the city Tuesday evening. Having last winter sold their home on Woodland avenue, Mr. and Mrs. Cottrill are this season occupying their new bungalow at the corner of Ridgewood and Woodland avenues. They have made many friends here who will be pleased to learn of their return for the season.

Mrs. H. M. Shouse and little son, Francis, arrived today from Danville, Ky., for a visit with Mrs. Shouse's father, J. W. Fiero, and other members of the family at their winter home on Cedar street. Mrs. Shouse is the wife of Rev. H. M. Shouse, a minister of the Baptist church.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Short and three children arrived Monday from Malone, N. Y., and are located for the season in the Kincaid house, adjoining the Troy hotel on Volusia avenue. They are accompanied by Mr. Short's cousin, Miss Florence Short, of Lisbon, N. Y. Mr. Short and family have spent a number of past seasons in Daytona and have many friends here to welcome their return for the winter. Mr. Short's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Howard, of Malone, will come to Daytona within the next week or two and spend the season at the Ridgewood hotel as usual.

E. S. Hall went down to Cocoa Tuesday afternoon, taking with him some workmen to begin operations for the erection of the pretentious home which he is to build for Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Porcher at Cocoa. He will from now until the completion of the residence spend much of the time at Cocoa.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Freese, who have been living on First avenue, removed this week to the Virginia Villa on South Palmetto avenue, accompanied by Mrs. Martine, Mrs. Freese's mother. Mrs. J. E. Brown, proprietor of the Virginia Villa, is a sister of Mrs. Freese.

Dried Apples Popular.
The drying of apples has become one of the great industries of the day, and people who live on the farms and in villages and towns are just as enthusiastic about the prospect of apple pies and sauce from dried fruit as are the people living in closely segregated sections of our large cities.

A Regular Dare-Devil.
She—"But you know an eminent professor says that kissing is a mild form of insanity." He—"Well, should worry. When I told your father I wanted to marry you, he said I was crazy."

WITH OUR EXCHANGES

The Arcadia Enterprise advises its readers, "Be sure you get your commission form of government on straight." That, in substance, is exactly what the News has been telling the people of Daytona.

Under the caption, "The Safe and Sane Drink," the Macon News pays a beautiful tribute to buttermilk. "Taint at all safe for a feller or 'felleress' who is predisposed to broaden out amidships."—Tampa Times.

The Cocoa News-Star remarks: "A prominent citizen of this city has suggested that the Allies would do well if they could make a contract with the editor of the Times-Union to go over and direct operations in the present campaign. He would undoubtedly be a valuable man."

The recent mix-up in Orlando's official family as concerns a city clerk reminds us a little of the British cabinet.—Orlando Sentinel.

We had been led to believe (?) that Orlando is the place where everything pertaining to municipal government is altogether lovely at all times, thanks to the triple-commissioner system.

Along with a big picture of Mayor-elect Higley, of Sarasota, the following appeared on the front page of a recent issue of the Sarasota Sun, of which the inimitable Rube Allyn is proprietor:

"In settlement of a wager with T. C. Williams, in which I agreed, in the event of Higley's election, to give him the first page of the Sarasota Sun, or have my hair cut short, I herewith hand him the first page. It takes time to grow hair."

"RUBE ALLYN."

Joyfully the Orlando Sentinel opines: "We are indeed glad to know that the bridge across the St. Johns river at Sanford will soon be completed. To run up to the old ferry, wait for half an hour for the 'Old Boy' and his crew to buzz back to you, then pulsating slide down a steep incline on to the ferry boat, then to wait until the one-lunger tows you over, and then depart to return the next night and blow your horn away trying to rouse that genial 'Old Boy' again—these are some of the irritations the public has endured for years. When the new bridge is completed life will be roseate."

BRILLIANT RECEPTION AT PALMETTO CLUB

A brilliant reception was tendered the members of the Palmetto club Tuesday evening at the club house on Orange avenue.

The building has been made larger by the addition of a lobby and stage, and opening off the main ball room, connected by French glass doors, is a delightful tea room. The color scheme is green, gold and white—the colors of the club. Indirect lighting is used, opalescent chandeliers, with silver chains, hang at intervals from a beamed ceiling.

Cut flowers and ferns were used for decoration. Saracina's band, through the courtesy of Commodore Burgoyne, furnished a pleasing program from a stage nearly hidden by potted plants, ferns and cut flowers.

Mrs. Murray L. Stanley, president of the club, together with Mrs. William Atwood, treasurer; Mrs. R. S. Maley, second vice president; Mrs. Emma Freeman, recording secretary, and Mrs. William A. Roxby, corresponding secretary, were in the receiving line.

All the ladies were beautifully gowned in the latest creations of modern modistes. The delightful combinations of color were only enhanced by the contrast of the formal evening attire of the gentlemen. Mrs. M. L. Stanley, the president, appeared more charming than ever in a cream brocade lace gown with rose trimmings, style Vandyke, and pearl necklace; Mrs. Wm. Atwood, black crepe taffeta with jet trimmings; Mrs. Charles V. Gallor, white net, white satin bandings, violets; Mrs. E. R. Mitchell, embroidered white crepe de chine, beaded applique, pink roses; Mrs. Wm. A. Roxby, a charming young matron, wore a Lucile design in white silk with black velvet bandings.

Refreshments were served in the tea room. Mrs. W. H. Wheeler and Mrs. Arthur W. Blake poured. The social committee comprising Mrs. S. C. Archibald, Mrs. W. H. Wheeler, Mrs. Alvire Milligan, Mrs. A. W. Gabeler and Mrs. Anna M. Marrener, must indeed feel repaid for their splendid efforts in making this first reception of the season such a great success.

The concert program was:
Intermezzo, Russi, (Franke)
Gavotte, Fair Maiden of Seville (Czibulka)
Le Secret, (Gautier)
Summer Breezes, (Mackie-Beyer)
Il Trovatore (Verdi)
A Perfect Day (Bond)
The Rosary, (Nevin)
Schubert Serenade.
Irish Melody (Moore)
Norwegian Dance (Grieg)
Star Spangled Banner.

Those present were Messrs. M. L. Stanley, Alvire Milligan, W. A. Roxby, W. E. Hitchcock, L. H. Thompson, J. W. S. Walcott, D. L. Perrin, L. Z. Burdick, Dr. Mitchell, Mr. Ennes, of Chicago; Dr. Rawlings, Dr. Esch, W. H. Wheeler and Dr. Long; Mesdames Hitchcock, Perrin, L. H. Thompson, Jr., Thorp, Walcott, Avery, John Milligan, Balcom, Burdick, Mitchell, Ennes, Hinks, Henry Thompson, Esch, DeVoy, Clarke, Young, Rawlings, Weeks, Stillman, Blodgett, Blake, Graham Thompson, Robbins, Traiglom, Sheets and J. H. Niver; Misses Kathryn Thorp, May Jolley, Edith Newell, Virginia Taylor, of Virginia; S. Elizabeth Stoeber, Lea Bowers, Adelaide Young and Sarah Young.

Knew His Duties.
A soldier on guard in North Carolina during the war was questioned as to his knowledge of his duties. "You know your duty here, do you, sentinel?" "Yes, sir." "Well, now, suppose they should open on you with shells and musketry, what would you do?" "Form a line, sir." "What! One man form a line?" "Yes, sir; form a bee line for camp, sir."

Color of the World.
A man's digestion has a good deal to do with the color of the world when he looks at it. There is more yellow in life from biliousness than from the state of the atmosphere.

Early German Marriage Custom.
Among the early Germans money was given to the bride's relatives on the wedding day, but this usage was not followed if the marriage happened to be an unequal one.

MARRIED COUPLE IN PORT ORANGE

Rev. Dr. Robt. McKay, rector of St. Mary's Episcopal church of this city, was called to Port Orange Tuesday to officiate at a wedding in that town, the happy couple being Miss Jessie D. Hadlock, of Port Orange, and Cyrus L. Broadwell, of Franklin, Tenn. The ceremony was performed at the winter home of Mrs. W. C. Earnhart, Riverside avenue, an aunt of the bride, at 2:30 p. m., and the bridal couple left on the afternoon train for Franklin, where they will make their new home. Dr. McKay returned to Daytona by the same train. Port Orange was the childhood home of the bride and she has many friends to wish her a long and happy married life.

TENDERED DELIGHTFUL BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

Mrs. Mabel D. Stych, of 38 Second avenue, was tendered a delightful surprise by a number of her friends Monday evening in celebration of her birthday anniversary. It was also almost as much of a surprise to Mrs. Stych's father, D. F. Randolph, who had some time previously been informed of the proposed surprise but had allowed the matter to escape from memory. Mr. Randolph had been to DeLand during the day and had returned but a short time when the avalanche of visitors descended upon the house.

Mrs. C. L. Harvey, of this city, and Mrs. D. Edward Lowe, of Seabreeze, were the principal movers in the planning of the surprise for Mrs. Stych, who was taken completely unawares. The party to the number of between 40 and 50 persons, met at the home of Mrs. Harvey on First avenue and went from there in a body to Mrs. Stych's home on Second avenue.

Mrs. Stych was relieved of all necessity of preparing for the gastronomic entertainment of her visitors, as each one brought some article of refreshment and there was a great abundance and variety of good things to eat.

The evening was spent very pleasantly in the playing of games of various kinds, in social conversation and in the enjoyment of the refreshments. A pleasant feature also of the occasion was the presentation to Mrs. Stych of a handsome fountain pen from her fellow members in the Seventh Day Adventist church.

If your copy of the Daily News don't arrive by 6 o'clock call "Western Union" and a copy will be delivered promptly by special messenger. This applies to Daytona only. Peninsula subscribers should call 18-green.

"Father of Modern Screw."

Jesse Ramsden, an English inventor, is credited with being the father of the modern screw. He began in 1775 to pay especial attention to the making of screws by machinery, and his invention may be regarded as the first example of the modern form of screw-cutting lathe, although 50 years before there had been made in France a machine for cutting the thread on the fuses of watches, and 200 years before Jacob Bessoni had designed a rude lathe for cutting wooden screws.

ORMOND

ORMOND, Jan. 4.—Mrs. Casper Baker and daughter Marion, of Sewickley, Pa., are expected on Wednesday of this week.

Burnham S. Colburn and family, of Detroit, Michigan, are again in Ormond for the winter, and are occupying one of the Prettyman cottages on the beach.

Mrs. J. D. Price went up to St. Augustine on Saturday to be present at the unveiling of the memorial statue of Henry M. Flagler, which took place on Sunday in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hastorf, of New York city, arrived last week and will occupy one of the Burr cottages for the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Hastorf have spent several previous seasons in Ormond, and their friends are pleased to again welcome them.

Theodore Fluhart, of Dayton, Ohio, arrived on Wednesday of last week, and will be at Mildred Lodge until the arrival of Mrs. Fluhart sometime later on.

Joseph R. Elliott of New York city, joined Mrs. Elliott and his daughter, Mrs. Jessie Sweet, at their home on Palmetto street Sunday. Mr. Elliott is planning to be here for the remainder of the winter.

Mrs. Richard R. Kimball returned to her home in Omaha, Neb., on Saturday last, to the regret of her many friends and acquaintances.

Among those from Ormond attending the unveiling of the memorial statue of H. M. Flagler at St. Augustine, was Leonard B. Knox, who went to that city on Sunday to be present at the ceremonies.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Clark of Seneca, Ill., with their family, arrived the latter part of the week and are now settled in their home on Pine street.

The annual reception of the Village Improvement association was held Saturday evening in the auditorium of the new Anderson and Price memorial library building. This was in the nature of a house warming; all the townspeople and guests in the town being cordially invited and made most welcome. The current from the new electric light plant was turned on for the first time that evening and the whole library building was brilliantly lighted for the occasion. The decorations, consisting of poinsettias, hyacinths, magnolia and palm branches were very effectively arranged. In the receiving line was the president of the association, Miss Weatherbee, and the following members of the building committee: Mrs. Macon Thornton, Mrs. Umeta Watson, Mrs. James E. Francis, Mrs. J. R. Clements; the others of this committee being still in the north. A short musical program was rendered and a very enjoyable recitation "Athletics at St. Wash College" was given by Benjamin Shaw. One of the pleasing features of the occasion was the suggestion of Professor Pinkerton that a vote of thanks be given Lars Bostrom and the Ormond Supply company for making possible the electric illumination, and the suggestion of Dr. John M. Richmond that three cheers be given to the architect of the building, George A. Carleton, for the zeal shown and for all he had done toward making this beautiful structure such a credit to the Village Improvement association and all connected with the town. The enthusiasm with which these suggestions were received gave every evidence of the appreciation of those present for the work of these two gentlemen. Refreshments of coffee, sandwiches and cakes were served, when the floor was cleared and dancing followed, much to the gratification of the young people as well as many of the lookers on with young hearts. This annual reception, which was so successfully planned and carried out was in charge of Mrs. H. B. Shaw, chairman, Miss Margaret Howe, Mrs. George N. Rigby and Miss Ella Foulke.

On Friday evening a New Years dance was given at the town hall by the young people, who danced the old year out and the new year in with very appreciable happiness and enjoyment. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served by the young ladies. Ormond now has electric lights on the streets and in the new memorial library building, and will soon have in the town hall as well as in the stores and various private residences now being wired. The electric light plant has been installed in connection with the ice plant of the Ormond Supply company, and great credit is due the push and energy of Lars Bostrom in bringing his efforts in this line to so successful and satisfactory an issue.

"WITHIN THE LAW" NOT COMING ON THE EIGHTH

The management of the New Daytona theater announces that the engagement of the popular play, "Within the Law," scheduled for presentation here on Saturday, January 8, has been cancelled. This action was taken because of the fact that the Clarendon hotel ball takes place on the evening of the date named, and it is recognized that the latter attraction would prove the greater to a majority of local theatergoers.

It is not unlikely that "Within the Law" will be presented here later in the season, says Cash Thomason, of the New Daytona theater management.

MRS. ELEANOR E. T. WEAVER IS VISITING DAYTONA

It will be of much interest to the residents of Daytona and especially so to the members of the Palmetto club to learn that Mrs. Eleanor E. T. Weaver, of Newburgh, N. Y., is a guest at the Ridgewood for an indefinite stay.

Mrs. Weaver was the president of the Palmetto club during the years of 1907 and 1908, and proved a most worthy executive. This estimable lady arrived in Daytona on Tuesday evening after a long journey southward, and was too fatigued to attend the reception at the clubhouse which was being held when she arrived. Her presence would indeed have proved a great pleasure to her many friends.

CONGRESS LEADERS

ANNOY MR. WILSON

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5. — While nothing has been said in an official way regarding the feelings of President Wilson over the persistence of certain leaders of the Democratic party in congress, to be consulted regarding the government's foreign policy during the present crisis, it is understood that he is exceedingly annoyed. Mr. Wilson, it is stated upon the highest authority, is quite willing to have advice from any responsible quarter, but he is also inclined toward Education.

A great people, being actuated by ideals of one kind and another, taxed themselves to the verge of exhaustion in order to make whistles out of pigs' tails. A few pigs' tails actually became whistles of a sort. Quite a number remained, after all, pigs' tails. But the great majority ended with being neither one thing nor the other. The great people clung to their ideals, however. "There's nothing like education, and lots of it!" they insisted.—New York Evening Post.

NEW ENGLAND BERRY GROWERS ORGANIZING

BOSTON, Mass., Jan. 5.—The strawberry growers of New England, under the lead of the Abington growers, are planning to organize in order that they may better handle the output of the big strawberry fields. Abington is the second in the strawberry growing towns of the state and the fame of the "Abington berry" is spreading. The growers have been handling the output independently, but think better results may be obtained through unity.

Not at All Times.

Husband—"There's one thing I can say for myself, anyway. I have risen by my own efforts." "Never in the morning, John. I notice that it takes two alarm clocks and all the members of the household to get you up then."

Kindness.

The spirit of unwearied good will is the great lifting power of the world. When we can do nothing else to right wrongs, lessen burdens or mend life's hard places for weary feet, we can at least be kind—kind in face, voice and deed. And oh, how many dark places would brighten, heavy loads grow light and new courage come to the heart if only simple kindness were the rule of earth!

Panama and Suez Canals.

The idea of the Panama canal is almost as old as the knowledge of the isthmus. Balboa is said to have suggested the big ditch after discovering the Pacific from the big hill about midway on the canal route. The Suez canal is said to have been dug originally by the Phoenicians, but after their commercial age passed it was filled up by the drifting sands. It was, of course, only a tiny waterway adapted to the oared galleons of that time.

Gas at First Not Appreciated.

Like most other useful inventions, gas was at first treated with ridicule, and the early companies for its manufacture were for many years anything but successful in their operations, and, indeed, were carried on at a loss. As our readers know, they are now among the most profitable of undertakings. Even when displaced as an illuminant, gas will always have a great value for heating purposes.

Retain Jewel of Friendship.

If we have had the good fortune to win the esteem of a friend, let us do anything rather than lose him. We must give and forgive, live and let live. If our friends have faults, we must bear with them. We must hope all things, believe all things, endure all things, rather than lose that most precious of all earthly possessions, a trustworthy friend.

Life's Bargain.

For we take out of life just what we put into it. If we give to life only complaining, life gives back only a many-echoed wail of our own whining. If we give to life joy, life throws back to us all those gracious, joy-laden gifts that the ancients picture spring tossing out of her lap to youth. Happy dreams send us out into the day glad. Nightmare thoughts project their dull shadows across the day.—Agnes Laut in the Century Magazine.

Had the Wrong Outlook.

A public man who looms large to the men of his day may be judged by posterity to have been standing for outworn ideals, and so to have hindered human progress. Demosthenes was regarded as a great patriot in opposing Philip of Macedon. But he was really the champion of the old idea of the independence of the Greek city-states, while Philip was developing the project of unifying Greece. For a century the city-states had been fighting each other, constantly beset by jealousies. Their lack of unity was a great obstacle to progress. Demosthenes was looking backward, not forward.

Diplomas for Everything.

An eastern lover of music wants a law passed which will require teachers of music to take examinations to prove their fitness to teach. Then, of course, there will be the same requirement for dancing teachers and bridge teachers and boxing teachers. The man without a diploma will feel very lonesome.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

MADE JOURNEY IN FAST SWASTIKET

W. E. Blodgett arrived from Jacksonville Tuesday afternoon at about 3:00 o'clock in his new speedboat, the "Swastiket," accompanied by his colored crew, Crist Clark. Mr. Blodgett went to Jacksonville by train Sunday afternoon and his man Clark joined him in that city Monday morning. The start from Jacksonville was made at 10:30 a. m. Monday and the trip was made in leisurely manner, as Mr. Blodgett did not wish to take any chances of injury to the engine which was getting its first try-out.

The Swastiket is 25 feet in length and 5 feet 2 inches beam and is constructed of solid mahogany throughout. The boat is provided with a glass windshield. The Swastiket is propelled by a 47-horsepower, four-cylinder Wisconsin motor and should develop considerable speed. It was built in New York, and is an exceedingly trim looking craft.

The new boat is housed in Mr. Blodgett's boat house at the Dunn Brothers dock, where his larger boat, the Swastika, is at anchor. Mr. Blodgett purchased the new boat with the idea of using it for trolling, but now fears it is too speedy for that, as well as being too good a craft to be devoted to fishing purposes. He will, however, be able to get much satisfaction out of the boat for pleasure purposes.

NEGRO DECAPITATED BY F.E.C. WORK TRAIN

FELL BETWEEN FLAT CARS AT NEW SMYRNA TUESDAY AND HEAD WAS SEVERED FROM BODY.

An unknown negro was killed by the work train on the F. E. C. railway at New Smyrna shortly after the noon hour on Tuesday. The negro had apparently boarded the train to ride for a short distance and fell between two flat cars while the train was in motion, meeting instant death as his head was severed from his body. An effort was being made to identify the negro but at last reports received here this had not been accomplished. The Flagler system has an excellent record for few accidents to passengers and employees and a casualty like that of Tuesday is very apt to be the result of some one heading the way on the trains.

NEW MANAGEMENT NAUTILUS CASINO

Joseph J. Weyman, of Elmira, N. Y., will take over the management of the Nautilus casino for Michael Shadr and will make some improvements at the casino in line with his knowledge of similar places of amusement in the North. Among other things will be the extension further into the ocean of the inside pipe to the swimming pool, so that the water in the tank may be replenished at all stages of the tide. This will not interfere with the use of the pool, which can be enjoyed at any time. Mr. Weyman, who spent last winter in this city, is associated with H. C. Cramer in the ownership of the Nile restaurant on South Beach street. He is particularly well qualified for the position of manager of the casino, having for a number of years been engaged in the management of similar amusement places in Elmira, Rochester and Auburn, N. Y.

CZAR LEADS RUSSIANS THROUGH MT. PASSES TO SWEEPING VICTORY

LONDON, Jan. 5.—With the Czar in supreme command, the Russians are rolling back the Teutonic allies along a battle front 250 miles in length. Under the fire of their huge guns, which are roaring through the mountain passes of eastern Galicia, the Russian hordes sweep onward carrying everything before them. Tremendous gains have already been made along the Strype river.

It is also stated, though unofficially, that Czernowitz has fallen. The Austrian government merely reports terrific fighting in the section. Von Hindenberg is delivering scattered attacks north of the Pripet marshes.

GOVERNMENT PUSHES SUBMARINE QUESTION

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—Officials stated today that the United States government would not be satisfied regarding submarine warfare until the Teutonic Allies accepted the principles enunciated by Germany following the Arabic case, and by Austria in the sinking of the Ancona. The question of armed merchantmen is becoming daily more serious and threatens complications. The Teutons will contend it is a difficult one to solve. It is believed that every vessel sunk since the Ancona, was armed more or less heavily and that the Persia carried belligerent soldiers and war supplies.

SENATORS TO FIGHT THE MEXICAN POLICY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—It is reported that Senators Borah and Lodge will make a bitter fight against the Mexican policy of the administration. They declare that there is no properly constituted government now in Mexico and that bloodshed, riot and rapine continue as a direct result. Carranza has not yet been able to occupy the capital of Mexico.

DAYTONA PLACE TO GET HEALTH, SAYS VISITOR

James A. Cronbie, who had been spending the past several weeks in Daytona, left this morning for Jacksonville and will stop at several Southern cities on his return to New York, where he will resume his duties as one of the best salesmen and manufacturers of the International Typewriting Machine company.

Mr. Cronbie is well-known in newspaper offices throughout the country. While in this city he was a member of the Daily News force, and his de-pature is regretted both by the News employees and by himself.

Speaking of Daytona, Mr. Cronbie said he could not praise it too highly. He said: "I came here two months ago almost an invalid, the result of a serious operation last fall, and on leaving here in an exceedingly improved condition."

Give not thy tongue too great a liberty, lest it take thee prisoner. A word unspoken is, like the sword in the scabbard, sharp; if used, it wounds in its brother's hand. If thou desire to be held wise, be so wise as to hold thy tongue.—Francis Quarles.
